ADDITIONAL PARK ACREAGE URGED AT MEETING

Foothill Association Favors Addition; Opposes Bonds In Present Form

At the meeting last night in the Central Avenue school of the Glendale Foothill Improvement Association with E. H. Botsford, president, in charge, that organization recommended that the city council acquire an additional thirteen acres adjoining the Patterson Avenue park for park purposes, five acres to be purchased by the city for $10,000 and the balance of eight acres to be a gift to the city from Mr. Halton.

The matter of clearing street corners of tall weeds and other obstructions for the safety of school children, as well as motorists, was also taken up, discussion resulting in that the secretary be instructed to ask the co-operation of the city in this matter.

Opening Patterson
A lively discussion regarding the improvement of Patterson Avenue resulted in action being taken that the association favor the opening of Patterson Avenue from Kenilworth street through to the junction of Grand View and San Fernando road.

Suggestions were made by several of the members for a branch library site, including that an additional story be added to the present fire hall, with a separate entrance. This, it was stated, is city owned property and would thus save the expense of buying a lot. Another location suggested was at the corner of Tenth and Western Avenue, this also being city property.

The library committee, of which C. M. Newby is chairman, was instructed to attend the next meeting of the library board and take up with them the matter of a branch library for the northwest section of the city.

High School Bonds
After long discussion of the high school problem action was taken that the association is opposed to the high school bonds in their present form and should be put in two issues, one for additional money to complete the buildings on the east side site and another for the location of a west side site.

The next meeting of the association will be held the first Tuesday in October at the new Grand View school at Fifth and Justin streets. This will be an important meeting and election of officers will take place at that time. A social evening will be combined with business.

City Will Again Seek Lower Rates on Pacific Electric

Glendale will again seek lower Pacific Electric rates. Members of the city council last night expressed their determination to bring this about if possible.

Upon motion of Councilman Dwight W. Stephenson, City Attorney Hartley Shaw was instructed to reopen the case now on file with the state railway commission and exert every effort to obtain a rehearing in regard to Glendale's Pacific Electric rates.

This action is taken as the result of the reduction given to Hollywood, it is stated.

COMMITTEES FOR CIVIC PROJECTS ARE CHOSEN

Representatives Selected at C. of C. Forum; Program of Work Outlined

Intensive co-ordination of all the civic bodies of Glendale was accomplished yesterday at the first autumn forum meeting of the Chamber of Commerce.

Representatives of the Merchants' Credit Association, the Realty Board, the Rotary Club, the Kiwanis Club, the Glendale Improvement Association and the Foothill Improvement Association were asked to appoint representatives of the Chamber of Commerce and set off to work out various civic problems.

Attended by more than sixty members and delegates, the meeting was declared highly successful and an inspiration to those who have continued throughout the summer the labors of civic development. The spirit with which the chamber of commerce enlisted the representatives of the other organizations into its program, and the enthusiasm with which those organizations accepted the opportunity to aid, was commended upon by a number of those present.

The business began with a brief directors' meeting covering routine business. Then President Hollister spoke concisely on the objects of the forum meeting, the aims of the proposed joint committees, and asked that suggestions be volunteered.

Joint Committees Named
The following committees were appointed and urged to get into immediate action on their respective assignments:

Committee on the proposal to build a boulevard in Verdugo wash: Peter L. Ferry of Chamber of Commerce, chairman; William A. Tanner of Merchants' Credit Association; E. F. Heisser of Exchange Club; William H. Reeves of Kiwanis Club; S. C. Kinch of Glendale Improvement Association; A. M. Yale of Realty Board.

Committee on securing new Southern Pacific depot: George Bentley of Chamber of Commerce, chairman; George B. Karr of Merchants' Credit Association; William Hunter of Rotary Club; C. F. Stuart of Kiwanis Club; P. J. Haydel of Glendale Improvement Association; E. D. Yard of Realty Board.

Monterey Road to Join Brand, Plan Of City Council

Monterey road is to be extended west to Brand boulevard, according to action taken last night by the city council.

A number of citizens interested in this improvement were present and examined a map depicting the new street. No opposition was apparent.

After a short discussion, City Attorney Hartley Shaw was instructed to draft the necessary proceedings to condemn a fifty-foot strip of land between Glendale Avenue and Brand boulevard to be known as Monterey road. This is just south of The Wash and joins Brand boulevard not far from the junction of Burchett street.

HEALTHLAND TRAIN MAKES TOURS AT ENCAMPMENT

Flyer Big Feature of Exhibit Tent of Local Sanitarium; Interests Thousands

Campers and visitors at the Seventh Day Adventist encampment in Los Angeles are finding the Glendale Sanitarium and Hospital exhibit tent a real temptation, for there one finds a miniature healthland with a little electric train, known as the Healthland Flyer, hurrying along a tiny track to the various points in Healthland. Whether one is in his second childhood or not yet out of his first, he is a possible victim of the attractive tours, arranged by Mrs. Daisy D. Harris and Miss Zeda Marsh, superintendent and assistant superintendent of nurses at the local institution and their assistants.

The Healthland idea was developed by a national health association, with headquarters in New York City, while the original itinerary has been made more interesting by the miniature town, train and series of posters, cleverly and artistically worked out by Mrs. Harris, Miss Marsh and others.

The minute one enters the Healthland tent he becomes a "tourist" and in introduction he is told that "Healthland, the oldest and most beautiful country in the world, was opened to tourists as a pleasure resort only a few seasons ago. It has quickly become the vacation ground of millions of boys and girls. Some of the points of interest en route, on the Healthland Flyer are:

The Milky Way, a "model city" and capital of Healthland, is historically noted as the battleground on which the Coffee King was defeated.

Then there is Drinkwater, situated on Sparkling Creek. A reservoir just above the town is large. (Continued on Page 10)

Mr. Bailey was driving a large empty gravel truck westward across the railway right-of-way. Whether he failed to see the approaching train or figured that he could get across before it arrived, is unknown. However, as soon as the truck had reached the middle of the track it was struck by northbound Southern Pacific passenger train No. 31 traveling at its usual rate of speed.

Mr. Bailey was hurled through the air over twenty-five feet and fell upon the ground in an unconscious condition. ## SEWER BIG NEED, SAYS SAM DAVIS

City Councilman, at Forum of C. of C., Urges More Effort on Problem

Sewers are the great need of Glendale, in the opinion of City Councilman Sam Davis—and that opinion aroused the applause of his auditors at yesterday's Chamber of Commerce luncheon-meeting.

"We've been kidding ourselves along and doing or attempting to do many things for the growth and betterment of Glendale," Mr. Davis declared, "but the sewer problem must be met first before we can hope to grow. Indeed it must be met as a safeguard even if we were not to grow."

Mr. Davis explained carefully that he believed in the other campaigns being conducted by the Chamber of Commerce and other organizations, but he felt that the major part of the uplift effort recently came to California from Indiana. The bridge has been a teacher in the public schools of her state. An impressive ring ceremony was used by Rev. Clifford A. Cole in the presence of a few close friends of the bride and bridegroom. Mr. and Mrs. Butler will make their home in Santa Monica where they are just completing a fine new residence.

After the ceremony the party adjourned to the bride's home, where a large number of friends assembled at an informal reception. A profusion of asters in blue, white and pink were used throughout the house. The table was decorated with blue crepe paper, blue candles and asters. ## CROWD GROWS AT ADVENTIST CAMP

Officials Make Interesting Talks; Committee on Plans in Report

Of the past three days at the encampment of Seventh-day Adventists of the Southern California Conference in Los Angeles activities of Monday were of particular interest. The crowd of church people was greatly increased, by outsiders beginning with the devotional services at 6 o'clock in the morning.

Pastor J. O. Corliss spoke at the devotional service in the big pavilion tent, while Elder C. L. Bond addressed the young people at the same hour.

Committee on Plans
A report from the committee on plans was heard at the conference session at 3 o'clock and at 11 o'clock an education program was given with Prof. W. W. Rubie, educational secretary of the Pacific Union Conference, and Prof. W. E. Nelson of Pacific Union College at St. Helena, as speakers. Prof. E. A. Pohl, principal of the local conference academy, also spoke.

During the day there was also a brief address by J. A. McEachern from Washington, D. C., the field secretary of missionary activities of the general conference. Mr. McEachern said: "We have 2000 colporteurs in the field and over $4,500,000 worth of literature has been sold."

In closing his address, Mr. Prout said: "If everybody, through all ages, would have observed the principles embodied in the commandments of God, there would have been no need for penitentiaries, prisons, and no need for justice courts or police courts, but righteousness and love, the principles of the law of God would prevail in the hearts of men."

SCHOOL DISTRICT DIVIDING LINE IS SELECTED

Lomita Avenue Chosen for Separation of Intermediate Sections by Board

Lomita Avenue has been designated as the dividing street between the two local intermediate school districts.

The grammar school board of education, which met last night, decided not to have any A-8th class at the new Glendale Avenue Intermediate school for the first term. Pupils who attended Cerritos school last term in the B-8th grade will return there next term.

Miss Natalie McKay of 1346 North Coronado street, Los Angeles, who taught last term at Cerritos, will return there next term instead of joining the faculty at the new Intermediate school.

Pupils, who were in the B-8th grade at the Wilson Intermediate school, will return there next term regardless of whether or not they live south of Lomita Avenue.

The Bentley-Schoeneman Lumber company of 460 West Los Feliz Road was awarded the contract to supply the lumber for the manual training rooms of the school system during the coming school year. The amount of its bid was $692.

Resigns Position
The resignation of Miss Verna Andrew of Los Angeles, who taught last term at the Wilson Intermediate school, was accepted. She has accepted a position with the Los Angeles school system.

Dr. G. Kaemmerling, city health officer, appeared before the board and requested the employment of a school nurse. Because of the absence of J. D. Hibben of 123 East Laurel street and Mrs. A. A. Barton of 630 North Howard street from the meeting, decision was reached to defer consideration of this matter until next meeting.

DRASTIC ACTION OVER DOGS, CATS

All Strays Will Be Shot by Council Orders; Rabies Break Out Again

Dogs and cats must be kept off streets and alleys.

The Glendale police department tomorrow morning will send out a shot gun squad authorized and instructed to shoot on sight all stray dogs and cats not confined in their owner's yard.

This action was decided upon last night by the city council after considerable discussion in regard to the seriousness of the epidemic of rabies in Southern California.

Two Persons Bitten
Dr. Joseph Whytock of 411 North Kenwood street and Jennie Leitch, 12-year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Leitch of 705 North Jackson street, are now being given the Pasteur treatment. They were bitten recently by dogs.

According to Dr. Gerhard Kaemmerling, city health officer, there is nothing "alleged" about the case of rabies.

Regulations drafted last night by the city council provide that all dogs and cats must be kept under the direct surveillance of their owners. Dogs must not be taken out on leashes or in automobiles. Dogs in the auto camp grounds must be confined in stockades.

Business Women In Meeting Last Night

At the meeting last night of the executive board of the Business and Professional Women's club, which Dr. Lauris Brown is president, held at the club-rooms, 126 South Maryland Avenue, fifteen new members were voted into the organization. At that time report was made that over $40 was cleared at the candy booth which was in charge of the business women at the opening of the new city park in Verdugo canyon recently.

Next Tuesday night the members of the club will meet at the rooms for a house-warming party and book shower for the club-rooms. On the 26th of September Dr. M. Tinkler will entertain the club members at her rooms, 107 1/2 South Brand boulevard. A meeting of all of the club committees is scheduled to take place September 19 at the club rooms for the purpose of talking over their work.

Theo. A. Bell to Be Buried at St. Helena

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 6.—Funeral services for Theodore A. Bell, who was killed in an automobile accident near Fairfax on Monday night, will be held Thursday afternoon at St. Helena.

As a mark of respect to the former congressman and anti-prohibition leader, departments of the superior court adjourned yesterday with expressions of sympathy.

IMPERIAL'S HEAT PREVENTS SLEEP

E. T. Seidenglanz, Back From Valley, Reports on Crop Conditions

"On Tuesday, August 29, it was 118 degrees in the Imperial Valley so hot we could hardly sleep at night. We never before appreciated Glendale so much as we did upon our return here Monday evening," declares E. T. Seidenglanz of the Circle Real Estate Company, who with Mrs. Seidenglanz and their children has returned from a trip through the Imperial Valley.

Leaving Glendale a week ago last Saturday, the party drove to San Diego and spent a day there. Continuing toward the valley they arrived in Live Oak Spring, on the west side of the valley, and stayed there one day.

They drove on to Holtville, near which city they visited an old friend, J. H. Streeter. During the week they drove to El Centro, Brawley, Calipatria, down to Calexico and into Mexicali, in old Mexico.

Some Growers Lose Money
Conditions in the Imperial Valley, says Mr. Seidenglanz, are not very good. Ranchers made money on their lettuce crop last spring, he states, and grape growers are now realizing profits. Vegetables other than lettuce, however, are not profitable this year, and alfalfa is so low that it may be bought, cut on the fields, for between $3 and $4 per ton. He says that practically all of the cantaloupe growers have lost money this year.

"The valley is beautiful in its way, and I suppose that after one has lived there a while he gets accustomed to the heat," says the realtor, "but it was too much for us. We were glad to get back into the mountains on the way home, and Glendale never looked so good to us before as when we drove in here Monday evening."

The roads into and through the Valley are good, says Mr. Seidenglanz, and the heat was the only unpleasant feature of the trip.

MINOR OPERATION

A minor operation was performed upon Harold James, son of L. E. James, of 451 West Main street this morning, at the Glendale Sanitarium and Hospital.

L. H. BLOCK AT HOME

FEW FAMILIES OF EAGLE ROCK PAY RENT

Electric Meter Statistics Show Five New Families Arrive Each Day

There are very few people in Eagle Rock who do not own their own homes. This statement was made by Mrs. Isabelle A. Baker of the Eagle Rock office of the Southern California Edison company yesterday. Through the applications for electric meter installations, Mrs. Baker is able to keep in touch with the proportions of home owners and renters, and she states that the number of owners is higher here than in most cities of this size.

Home Owners Are Boosters

A city in which most of the residents own their own homes has a much greater chance of continued prosperity than one in which most of the houses are rented, she maintains. Persons who own property in a city are quite naturally much more booster for the place than those who merely rent their homes.

Although a large number of meters were installed through the local office during August, the local records do not cover the total installations in Eagle Rock, since many persons file their applications in the Los Angeles office of the company. If the local and Los Angeles records of meter installations were added, says Mrs. Baker, the total would make a daily average of at least five and perhaps six meters.

Intax Constantly Increases

The past few months have all exceeded the records of previous periods in number of electric meter installations, and Mrs. Baker believes that within a short time the demand will assume such proportions that added facilities must be procured.

Another indication of Eagle Rock's growth is the report of the Eagle Rock water department. During August 47 water meters were installed in Eagle Rock, according to Mrs. Frances N. Rees of that department. Although this is not the record for any one month, it is the largest number so far recorded for the month of August.

OCCIDENTAL OPENS ON SEPTEMBER 18

Dr. James A. Francis Is On Program Initiating New Semester at College

Dr. James A. Francis of the First Baptist church, Los Angeles, is to make the address at the opening of Occidental college, September 18, according to an announcement made at the Eagle Rock institution yesterday afternoon.

Dr. Remsen DuBois Bird, president of the college, is on a business trip to New York, and will not return to Eagle Rock until September 18 or 19. He will try to be present for the first assembly of the year, which falls on Tuesday, September 19. Occidental is a busy place these days, with carpenters, painters, landscape gardeners and other workmen preparing the grounds and buildings for the opening of school. The old lawn of the Upper Quadrangle has been torn up, and a new stand of grass being put in, will be completed in a few days. The buildings all have been practically renovated, and changes have been made in some places to offer greater accommodations.

Dr. Irene T. Myers, dean of women, has returned from a vacation spent in the Yosemite valley and at the University at Berkeley. She is prepared to take under her wing the young women who enter the college. Miss Gertrude Sutcliffe and Griffith, secretary to the president, returned yesterday from Inverness, in northern California, where she has been spending a few weeks' outing.

Big Attendance Assured

Preparations are being made to take care of more students than ever before. The first registration and examination day is a week from tomorrow. A high record registration is assured. Some students will be admitted on their credits, while others will have to pass entrance examinations. A few applications for admission will have to be passed on by a committee of the faculty.

The problem of housing the prospective students still confronts college authorities. Facilities at the college itself will take care of but a small part of the enrollment, it is expected. Already many of the available rooms in private homes near the campus have been reserved.

Eagle Rock people who wish to rent one or more rooms to students during this school year are asked to telephone or bring in the details to the office of the college, where they will be filed for reference by students seeking rooms.

Tuesday Afternoon Plans Big Exhibit

A meeting of the ways and means committee of the Tuesday Afternoon club was held yesterday afternoon at the home of the chairman, Mrs. A. H. Montgomery, 415 South Central avenue.

Plans were made and discussed regarding the fashion show to be given by Pendroy's on September 25, at the Glendale theatre for the benefit of the club building fund. Plans were also discussed regarding the society circus to be given by the club early in November.

The members of the Glendale lodge of Elks have generously offered the use of their entire building for the event as their donation to the new Tuesday Afternoon clubhouse fund.

An average American town uses for all purposes from fifty to 150 gallons of water a day for each inhabitant.

Stabbed by Neuritis!

Many people suffer attacks by this arch-fiend, commonly called "nerve inflammation." The first warning is usually a sharp, stabbing pain, which may "come and go" or hurt constantly. You may feel it in the shoulder, neck, forearm, small of the back, or down the thigh and leg to the foot. It is sometimes mistaken for sciatica, rheumatism or neuralgia, which often end in neuritis.

No matter where you have nerve pains or what caused them, you can get quick relief without using narcotics or poison. Just apply Tysmol over the part that hurts, and in a few minutes the pain will be gone. Tysmol is absorbed through the pores of the skin. It has a soothing, heating effect upon the diseased nerves, gradually helping to restore them to healthy condition.

Don suffer any longer. Price $1 at Roberts & Echols, Tysmol Co., Mfg. Chemists, 409 Sutter Street, San Francisco.—Advertisement.

PEACE MOVES IN RAIL FIGHT SEEN

Conference of Executives to Be Held in Few Days, Washington Report

By GEORGE R. HOLMES For International News Service WASHINGTON, Sept. 6.—Decision by the administration that the drastic Daugherty injunction against the striking railway shom-men is not to be enforced literally—was accompanied today by a flurry of reports that new peace moves are afoot to end the nine weeks' strike of the Federated Shopcrafts.

These new peace moves, definite confirmation of which was lacking, were reported to hinge about the efforts of B. M. Jewell, chairman of the shopcrafts unions; Daniel Willard, president of the Baltimore & Ohio, a pronounced "moderate" among the executives, and T. DeWitt Cuyler, head of the Association of Railway Executives.

Free Speech Remains

President Harding and Attorney-General Daugherty were both on record today as opposed to any enforcement of the injunction to the point where it conflicts with the constitutional guarantees of free speech and the right of peaceful, lawful assembly.

The sole object of the injunction, the attorney-general said, is to prevent violence and disorder and to prevent physical interference with transportation.

It is the apparent policy of administration officials to disregard the "oratory" of labor leaders about the injunction, at least no punitive steps are in contemplation against those who have launched bitter verbal attacks against the instrument.

Speeders Will See Judge Next Friday

Notices have been mailed to 38 speeders who were to have appeared at the court in the Eagle Rock city hall Saturday morning, informing them that court will be held at 9 o'clock Friday morning instead. Saturday, September 9, being Admission day, the city hall will be closed.

Judge Harold Ide Cruzan, when he found that speeders had been ordered to appear Saturday morning, announced that he would not hold court on Admission day.

The change in dates was made immediately and the luckless 38 who were docked for this week's court were mailed the notices giving them one day less of grace.

government will voluntarily accept a modification of the restraining order when the matter comes up before Judge Wilkerson in Chicago next Monday.

COMMENT THAT'S ALL

'City Feller' Confesses Boost Civic Projects It's Easy to Promise Fond Recollections

By Gil A. Cowan
 In the course of human events, as some one has said before, "accidents do happen."

At the meeting of the Southern California Editorial Association in Los Angeles last night, honoring Friend William Richardson, republican nominee for governor, one of the political accidents in this state was discussed.

It was good to hear some of the representatives of the metropolitan papers stand up and admit their prognostications were wrong—"all wrong."

And, as one said: "You country editors have it all over the city fellows—out where you personally collect from the subscriber and know what he is thinking."

"Downtown we sit in our office and think we know. But we must admit that the country editors have slipped one over on us."

When all civic organizations get behind the Chamber of Commerce there is bound to be something doing in a city.

At yesterday's forum meeting of the Glendale Chamber this spirit was evidenced and good work was started on its way.

Glendale has some great and crying needs. To discuss them is simply to review discussions gone before.

But there is a hotel to be built, sewers to be installed, a depot to be obtained and a score more things needing attention of civic spirit.

Now that the fall and winter season of activity fast approaches let us all get behind the projects considered worthy and give them the support they merit.

Promises are easily made. I remember a fellow who promised his employees a share in the profits of a new concern in order to make his idea succeed. They got something the first year and then—they didn't see any more "profits."

This same fellow, who isn't so far removed from Glendale, has made a lot of promises to his employees and "partners" whom he privately terms a lot of "poor fish." When he sees they are of no further use to him, this "great benefactor" throws them overboard.

Believe me, if you have ever been hooked by such a fellow, you know as well as anyone else where he will eventually land. As Abe Lincoln once said, "You can fool some of the people some of the time, but you can't fool all of the people all of the time."

In the views of others we have the satisfaction of seeing our own sentiment reflected. Here is what the Pasadena Star-News says editorially:

"President Harding has been invited to visit the Coney Island Mardi Gras in New York. He wants to go. But he can't. He would like to steal away for a few days and ride the roller coasters and indulge in the innocent hilarity of the carnival. It would relieve him immensely from the strain and stress of official responsibility. But the iron hand of duty is hard upon him. He must decline the invitation to go and be a boy again and romp and frolic, as even staid presidents would do."

"It is one of the gratifications in connection with human nature that, no matter how far men or women advance in worldly station and honors; no matter to what power or to what exalted position they climb, there remains in them the yearning for the homely simplicities of early life. The man who holds the power and dignity of president of the United States many times longs, with heart brimming over with fond recollections, to be a boy again, and go barefoot, and go wading and swimming and fishing; to play ball on the sandlots; to hunt, and to roam the hills and woods and hills, free from care and exultant in the joy of living. The man who thus yearningly reverts to the pleasures of boyhood is neither old nor mean in spirit."

Garbage Can Holder Placed on Market

Bearing the endorsement of Dr. G. Kaemmerling, city health officer, the Universal Garbage Can Holder has been put on the market in Glendale by the Way & Pirtle Manufacturing Company, represented by F. L. Rinear. In the combination holder and can the company uses the best all galvanized iron garbage cans of the fitted type. The frame may be located in a permanent place by screwing or nailing or the householder may purchase a can and holder on small ball-bearing wheels, which allows the can to be easily rolled to any desired spot. Another fine feature of the affair is that when the lid is lifted it can be caught in a lock at the top of the holder and held in that position till the garbage is emptied into the can or the can removed from the holder and emptied into the garbage wagon.

League of Nations Elects Its Officers

GENEVA, Sept. 6.—Six vice-presidents were elected today by the League of Nations assembly. They were: Earl Balfour, England; Gabriel Hanotaux, France; Dr. Gomez, Portugal; Hjalmar Branting, Sweden; Senor Cimeno, Spain and Dr. Nintchich, Czechoslovakia. It is reported that the Irish free state will apply for membership during the present plenary session of the league.

Girl Strangles Self With Skipping Rope

LONDON — Inadvertently strangling herself to death with her own skipping rope was the remarkable fate of Marguerite Martin, of Kpnai.
 It was learned at the inquest that after skipping with her schoolmates she fastened one end of her rope to a gate, the other end she then wound around her neck to play. A strong wind resulted in the gate swinging to and fro, and the girl was swung off her feet, dying later of strangulation.
 A tree which stood 200 feet high and from which seven thirty-two-foot logs were cut below the branches was recently felled at Kapowin, Wash.

Britons Are Advised to Seek Yank Money

LONDON—American goldfields are awaiting English exploitation, according to a figurative statement made by Sir Charles Higham, English advertising expert, who has just returned from America.
 "People in England do not realize the amount of money there is in America ready to be invested in British industrial groups," Sir Charles says. "All that is needed to induce them to invest is a sound economic policy allied to systematic advertising."

British Vegetarian Ill at Ease in U. S.

LONDON—"Apple pie a la mode," "clam chowder" and "Thousand Island salad dressing"—that's what's the matter with the United States.
 W. B. Shearn went to the United States with a Rotarian delegation. He came back to England and announced the only fault he had to find with America was that "apple pie a la mode," "clam chowder" and "Thousand Island salad dressing" figured in every menu. Shearn, who is a vegetarian specialist, couldn't find a vegetarian luncheon in all America.
 The Chinese, it is estimated, eat 5,000,000 dogs annually. The dogs are of special breed, raised wholly for food purposes.

Atlanta Plans to 'Get Into Movies'

ATLANTA—Efforts to make Atlanta a leading picture production center are revealed in the granting of authority by the Georgia Securities commission to proceed with plans to that effect.
 The plans contemplate formation of a $1,000,000 picture finance corporation and the erection of a $100,000 studio in Atlanta.
 The Southern Motion Picture Finance Corporation provides studio facilities and distribution is handled by the W. W. Hodkinson Corporation of New York.
 Fifty-two feature productions will be handled annually by these co-ordinating organizations. Emphasis will be given to the production of pictures dealing with the south.

The Riddle of the Frozen Flame

By M. E. & T. W. HANSHEW
Copyright, 1920 by Doubleday, Page & Company

Someone turned at his raucous voice and looked back over the curve of a huge shoulder. Then he went to the doorway of the little pub, and raised a hand, with two fingers extended. Obviously it was some sort of sign, for in an instant the noise of voices dropped, and Cleek and Dollops slouched in and up to the crowded bar. Men made room for them on either side, as they pushed their way in, eyeing them at first with some suspicion, then, as they saw the familiar garments, calling out some coarse jest or greeting in their own lingo, to which Cleek cheerfully responded.

And little to the right of them stood Borkins, his cap still pulled low over his eye, and a shabby overcoat buttoned to the neck. Cleek glanced at him out of the tail of his eye, and then, at sight of his companion, his mouth tightened. He'd give something to measure that cur muscle for strength, strength for strength! The sort to steal into a man's room at night and try to murder him! The detective planted an arm—brown and brawny and with a tattooed serpent winding its way round the strong wrist to the elbow (oh, wonderful make-up box!)—on the edge of the marble bar, and called loudly for a drink. His very voice was raw and husky with a tang of the sea in it. Dollops' nasal twang took up the story, while the barmaid—a red-headed, fat woman with a coarse, hard face, who was continually smiling—looked them up and down, and having taken stock of them, set two pewter tankards of frothing ale before them, took the money from Cleek, bit it, and then with a nod dropped it into the till and came back for a chat.

"Strangers, ain't you?" she said pleasantly, leaning on the bar and grinning at them.

"Yus," Cleek's voice was sharp, emphatic.

"Thought so. Sea-faring, I take it?"

"Yus," said Cleek again, and gulped down the rest of his ale, pushing the tankard toward her and nodding at it significantly.

She sniffed, and then laughed.

"Want another, eh? Ain't waddin' many words, are yer matey? 'Oo the little 'un?"

"Meaning me?" said Dollops, bridling. "None of yer blarney 'ere, miss! Me an' my mate's been on a walkin' tooter—come up from Lunnon, we 'ave."

"You never did!"

Admiration mingled with disbelief in the barmaid's voice. A little stir of interest went round the crowd as they gulped down the second tankard and pushed it forward again to be replenished.

"Come from Southampton, we 'ave. Got a pass up to Lunnon, 'cause a mal told us there'd be work at the factories. But there weren't no work. Gawd's truth! What're sailor-men waddin' wi' cloth-makin' and 'ammering tin-pots? Them's the only jobs we wuz offered in Lunnon. I don't give a curse for the plice. . . . No, Sammy an' me we says to each other—he took another drink and wiped his mouth with the back of his hand—"we says this ain't no plice for us. We'd just come over from Jamaica—"

"Go out! 'Travelin' in furrin parts was you!" this in admiration from the barmaid.

"—and we ain't seen' ourself's turning inter land lubbers in no sick spot as that. Pal told us there was a 'arbor down 'ere abahits, wiv a factory wot a sailor-man might git work at an' still 'old 'is self-respec'. So we walked 'ere."

"Wot energy!"

Black Whiskers—as Dollops had called him—broke in at this juncture, his thin mouth opening in a grin that showed two rows of blackened teeth.

Cleek twitched round sharply in his direction.

"Yus—wasn't it? And funny"

Copyright, Underwood & Underwood.

Able to swim, but a bit timorous about venturing far out for fear you'll grow weak and be unable to make the shore again? Then here's the trick—recently invented by a Wimbledon (England) man. A long, narrow bag of thin rubber fabric is tucked inside the breast of one's swimming suit—deflated. In case of emergency it may be inflated by a short rubber tube (as in photo) a few breaths and one is buoyed to safety.

ELIMINATION OF ANTENNA RESISTANCE

In the immediate preceding article a combination of ground and counterpoise constructed by H. H. Beverage was discussed. This combination, of course, required careful adjustment for wave length. Mr. Beverage explains his methods as follows:

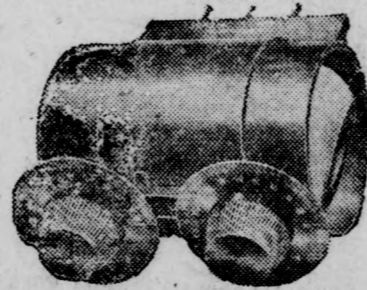

With the circuits properly adjusted, removing either the ground connection or the counterpoise alone will not change the antenna wave length, but will change the antenna resistance only. The easiest way to tune up the counterpoise and ground is to first tune to the desired wave length, using the counterpoise alone, then try the ground clip on different turns of the helix until the point is found where the wave length is the same as with the counterpoise alone. The ground clip should be adjusted to within a half turn or a helix of large diameter. When the ground clip is at the neutral point the inductive impedances

They Say That

Pacific trade is picking up. Statistics for San Francisco port, compiled by Jerry Dailey, manager of the marine department of the Chamber of Commerce, show that ship arrivals for the first six months of 1922 increased 879 over the same period in 1921. The figures for 1921 were 1838, and the figures just compiled for 1922 show 2621 vessels arriving.

Even more illuminating as to trade conditions is the tonnage record. For the first six months of 1921 the ship tonnage arrivals totaled 3,518,669 tons, while the ship tonnage of arrivals for the first six months of 1922 was 4,955,658—an increase of 1,436,989 tons.

Ship departures showed a similar leap. During the first six months of 1921 they totalled 1795, while the total for the first six months of 1922 was 2673.

Ship tonnage in departures increased 1,515,233 tons in the first half of 1922 over the similar period of a year ago. The figures for 1922 were 4,941,749, and those of 1921 3,426,518.

all, frequently leaving many tons for the next vessel.

An interesting feature of the statistics for ship arrival tonnage was the fact that during the first six months of 1921 sailing vessels accounted for 128,309 tons, while for the first half of 1922 sailing vessels accounted for only 49,459 tons, despite the big general increase in tonnage. Outgoing in 1921, 132,765 tons of the aggregate tonnage was represented by sailing vessels, while in the same period of 1922 only 94,095 tons represented sailing vessels.

Uncle Wiggily Bedtime Stories

BY HOWARD R. GARIS

UNCLE WIGGILY AND THE HOLLOW LOG

Once upon a time, when some of the animal boys and girls were playing in the woods, not far from Uncle Wiggily's bungalow, Jackie Bow Wow, the puppy dog chap, saw a big fallen log lying amid the dried leaves. The log was hollow, with a hole in each end.

"And it must have a hole all the way through," barked Jackie to his brother Peetie.

"I believe it has," agreed Peetie. Let's see if we can crawl through."

"All right!" whined Jackie. "You start in at one end and I'll crawl through at the other end. We'll meet in the middle, shake paws, and then you'll come out at the end where I started, and I'll come out the end where you went in."

"Fine fun!" barked Peetie. So the puppy dogs started to crawl through the hollow log, while Sammie and Sussie Little-tail, Johnnie and Billie Bushytail and Lulu, Alice and Jimmie Wibblewooble watched to see what would happen.

The fallen, hollow log was filled with dried leaves that made a rustling sound as Jackie and Peetie started to crawl in. First the heads, then the bodies and then the tails of the little puppy dogs were lost sight of, as they went in the log. The other animal children waited anxiously for what might happen.

"Oh, just supposin'—" began Baby Bunny, when, all of a sudden, out of his end of the log rushed Jackie Bow Wow, all excited.

"There's something in that log!" he barked. "I heard a scurrying and rustling in the leaves!"

At the same time Peetie rushed from his end of the log, all excited, and he barked:

"There's something in that log! I heard a scurrying and rustling in the leaves!"

"That's just what I thought would happen!" exclaimed Baby Bunny. "We must go tell Uncle Wiggily right away, 'cause this log is in his woods!"

Off to the stump bungalow hurried the animal children. They saw the bunny rabbit gentleman sitting on his front porch.

"Oh, Uncle Wiggily!" they barked, cried, cackled, chattered, squeaked, quacked and clucked, for there were dogs, cats, chickens, ducks, rabbits and squirrels. "Oh, Uncle Wiggily, you ought to come quick!"

"What's the matter?" asked the bunny gentleman.

"There's something in your hollow log! There's something in your hollow log!" cried the animal children. "Come and see!"

Uncle Wiggily went to the hollow log followed by all the animal boys and girls. Mr. Longears stooped down and squinted in one end of the log.

"All I can see are dried leaves," he said.

Then he took a look at the other end.

"Nothing but leaves here, too," said the bunny. "I don't believe there was anything in that log but you two puppy dog boys. Each one made a rustling in the dried leaves and that's what you heard. But to make sure I'll crawl in myself."

"Susie, you hold my coat! Jimmie Wibblewooble, please hold my hat! Baby Bunny you hold my glasses! I'll crawl through that hollow log from end to end."

As the animal children watched, Uncle Wiggily began to crawl in the hollow log. First his head, then his body and then his stubby tail was lost to view. And, no sooner was he all the way inside the log, than the Fuzzy Fox rushed down the hill among the crowd of animal children, barking:

"Ha! Now I'll get Uncle Wiggily! Now I'll get Uncle Wiggily! I saw him crawl in the hollow log and before he can get out, I'll grab him and nibble his ears!"

The Fox started to crawl inside the log, beginning at the same end where Uncle Wiggily had entered.

"Oh! Ah! Oh, dear!" sighed the animal children, while Lulu Wibblewooble, the duck, quacked: "Uncle Wiggily, come out! Uncle Wiggily, come out! There's surely something in the log now! The Fuzzy Fox is there!"

There was a loud rustling in the dried leaves that filled the log and out of the opposite end from where he had entered crawled Uncle Wiggily. He was all leaves and his fur was rubbed the wrong

The Fox started to crawl inside the log.

The bunny gentleman. "Quick, children, bring stones and stop up both ends of the hollow log and the Fox can't get out to nibble me!"

Quickly the animal boys and girls brought dozens of stones. Soon both ends of the log were tightly stopped, as you put a cork in a bottle.

"Let me out! Let me out!" howled the Fox, when he found he was shut in the hollow log. But did they let him out? Oh, no indeed! I should say not!

"Well, after all, there was something in the log!" laughed Uncle Wiggily, as he put on his coat, hat and glasses and bought ice cream cones for the children. "And we'll let him stay for a while."

Once again the bunny had fooled the Fuzzy Fox, and if the dining room chair doesn't stand on one leg and do such a funny dance that the table laughs all the dishes off on the floor. I'll tell you next about Uncle Wiggily and the bee.

Cooking by steam "under pressure" brings out all the flavors and juices and makes all food, even toughest meats, tender and delicious, in ½ the time, with ¼ the fuel. ### WHAT'S A PARTY FOR?

Did you ever go to a party at which the eats were perfect, and the house immaculate, and the guests ready to have a good time, and the whole thing a complete frost because the hostess had worked herself to death and was so nervous and tired that she couldn't possibly make the party go?

I have.

And I have always come home promising myself I never would do it (not that I never have).

To Show Off

What's a party for? To show what a good housekeeper you are and to prove that you have embroidered towels and an expensive tablecloth and nice silver and know how to set a table with assorted flatware, or is it to get congenial people together and give them a good time?

I hold it has the second purpose and that the hostess who keeps that ideal in mind will make her home the kind of place of which the crowd say: "Oh, we always have a good time when we go to Jane's."

When the hostess' chief ideal is to impress people with her possessions and her capabilities, she never succeeds in giving a really successful party.

Of course we want good eats and we appreciate them when they are better than good.

The Hostess

And, of course, we expect the house to wear its best dress just as we expect the hostess to wear her own dress up frock instead of her morning gown. And when we get there we enjoy festive touches like flowers in the rooms and table decorations, because that makes it a glad occasion and stimulates us like lights and music. But nobody except the hostess really cares if she didn't get time to wash the dining room windows or do up the living room curtains. Whereas everybody cares if she insisted on making time and tired herself all out and and is a wet blanket on her own party.

For the eats and the dressed up house are just the raw ingredients of the party. A hostess must know how to mix these with congenial people and hospitality and a dash of the Good Time spirit before she can make her parties a true success.

Tomorrow—A Familiar Drama.

THE BUDGET

The budget has so much value that no thrift program can ignore it. Every large corporation, or institution, puts their expenditures on a budget basis, and why not put our household on the same plan?

A budget is the planning of the spending before actually doing it. In other words, it is locking the barn while the horse is still there, rather than waiting until after it is stolen. A budget is not to be planned for a short period of time, and is much more practical worked out on a yearly basis. The items are averaged and a more clear conception of the amounts spent for various divisions of the budget can be estimated.

Each budget is a personal affair, only the person interested can plan the budget for his own use. Suggested plans can be offered, but each budget depends upon the individual standards and circumstances. The following will have effects that make a general plan practical:

First, amount of income; second, locality; third, individual standards; fourth, dependents; fifth, health.

There can be a general form of budget that can be adapted to individual needs. Keeping accounts there should be some method of showing receipts and expenses, the income and the outgo, so that a balance can be made at any time. The items should be so listed, too, that it is possible to tell what expenditure has been made for any one item, as rent, or food, or other necessities. It is only in this way that accounts become valuable for future use, so that all phases of life will be considered and so that the homemaker will be able to profit the second year because of the expenditures of the first. This makes housekeeping interesting and business-like. The expenditure is made to produce the maximum of pleasure and is accompanied by the greatest possible pleasure.

There are many ways of keeping such accounts. The simplest

Diet and Health

By Lulu Hunt Peters, MD.
Author of "Diet and Health, with Key to the Calories"

VACCINATION (Continued)

Did you ever see a case of smallpox? It is a terribly loathsome disease, isn't it? Not only is the patient acutely ill but the skin all over the body is a mass of repulsive eruptions. If the patient recovers he may be disfigured for life or left blind or have some other serious consequence.

It is hard to realize that smallpox used to be much more common than measles and that for centuries it was one of the great scourges. The history of it shows that it depopulated whole cities and even exterminated small nations. It was no respecter of persons. Kings and queens died as readily as the lowly born.

It is claimed by the anti-vaccinationists that our improved sanitation has caused smallpox to cease being a scourge. It is held by physicians and public health experts and health officials that smallpox ceased to be a scourge when Jenner introduced vaccination more than 100 years ago, and that it is only by vaccination that we can keep it from becoming a scourge again. Sanitation and isolation are secondary.

While isolation and methods of sanitation should be carried out with strictness, because smallpox is one of the most contagious of communicable diseases, the only real prevention of the disease is vaccination. Even under the most hygienic surroundings there seems to be no natural immunity against smallpox. It is such a contagious disease that no matter what the state of the individual's health, if he is exposed to smallpox he is liable to contract the disease—unless he has had smallpox or cowpox. If he has had smallpox or cowpox, then Nature has manufactured a defence for smallpox in his body during the time that he had the disease. This

FEEDING THE FINGERNAILS

Most people feel if they have the nails manicured once a week or so, they have done all that should be required. Often they write and ask why nails receiving so much attention should lose their freshness in a few days. One woman insists that she never neglects her nails since she gives them the daily buffing and keeps the cuticle from tightening over the base of the nail every day in between her regular manicure, yet her nails are full of ridges and break off if allowed to grow to any length.

In all such cases the trouble comes from neglecting to feed the nails in between the manicures. If a small amount of cream had been rubbed into them each day, there would not have been as much need for the larger task. While a manicure is a health treatment, it is not enough to keep nails that are dry in perfect condition.

In many cases the periodical manicure, plus a slight amount of daily care, will be all that is needed to attain nails that are shell pink in tint. Such nails belong to youth and people of exceptionally good health. But, in the case of older people, or those having a dry skin, the nails will be brittle and require feeding with an oil which not only softens but nourishes as well. Since the nail is part of the skin, a deficient amount of secretion from the skin means a starved nail.

Then we abuse the nails by using caustic soaps, or immersing our finger tips in water, as in the instance of the housekeeper who is handling acid fruit and vegetables, all of which acts against the regular growth of the nail. Yet all ravages may be encountered if a nourishing oil is supplied, and the nail kept young indefinitely, since it responds to care more quickly than any other part of the body.

Proper treatment consists in massaging them well with a suitable cream whenever there is any tendency to brittleness, taking care to rub it well into the part where the nail grows out of the skin. Any cream in which there are good oils will nourish, but the best nail cream will also be slightly astringent, as this property tends to keep the cuticle from growing over the nail—a fact that will be appreciated at the time of manicuring. The best cream that I know of, and one that answers

Even the nails need nourishment.

Mrs. E. M.—There is a movement among some hair dressers to keep bobbed hair as is for daytime appearances and to arrange it in some other way for evening or dressy occasions. There are no indications that this has lessened the popularity of the style for any occasion whatever.

All inquiries addressed to Miss Forbes in care of the "Beauty Chats" department will be answered in these columns in their turn. This requires considerable time, however, owing to the great number received. MOST NORTHERN P. O.
Aklavick, a trading post on the delta at the mouth of the Mackenzie river, is the most northerly postoffice in Canada. Two mails leave the new postoffice by steamer during the open season and one by dog team during the winter, the latter being the most lonely as well as the longest postal route on the continent.

STEADY COMMUNICATION
Wireless telephone operation across the English Channel has made possible continuous communications between English shore stations and flying planes in the Brussels-Paris service, and is particularly helpful in heavy fog, as orders or explanations of conditions at landing fields can be conveyed to pilots of aircraft.

FIVE BOUTS WILL PROVIDE CROWD WITH THRILLS

Well Balanced Card Ready for Approval of Local Fight Fans Tonight

Just what surprise the "Arizona Wildcat" will have in store for Chick Watson of Glendale when the two meet in the squared circle tonight can only be surmised. Admirers of the big Burbank boy say that Watson is going to be surprised plenty, while local fans who favor Chick believe that he will come out with some championship wallops.

The two are included in the five-bout fight card to be staged at the Odd Fellows' Hall, Broadway and Orange, at 8:15 this evening by the Modern Woodmen of America.

The "Wildcat" challenged Johnny Myers about a month ago, and at the last Woodmen affair Johnny tamed the raging Arizona man. On the same evening Chick Watson and Walter Dodge slugged their way to a draw. Now Carroll Hare and O. M. Clinton, managers for the Woodmen, believe that the two should furnish some interesting entertainment.

Waiting Gong
All of the ten who are booked to appear on tonight's card are in fine shape and haven't a chance to be injured before the evening's events, says Hare. They are all resting up today, and will not slip on the gloves again until ready to enter the ring this evening.

Hare and Clinton have unquestionably arranged one of the best fights of their series this summer. Although opinions in different localities favor different fighters, most of the bouts should be pretty even matches.

As usual, says Hare, all ring-side seats will probably be gone before the first preliminary. The past Woodmen affairs have always been well attended, and several of tonight's bouts, notably that between Johnny Myers and Young Stone, are going to attract a number of fight fans.

Here is Card
The complete card for tonight, as announced by Clinton and Hare, is as follows:
Young Welch, Glendale, versus Paddy Mulligan, Pasadena; Johnny McCrory, Burbank, versus Walter Dodge, Glendale; Kid Eslick, Glendale, versus Burbank King, Burbank; Chick Watson, Glendale, versus Arizona Wildcat, Burbank; Johnny Myers, Glendale, versus Young Stone, Glendale.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT OF SPORT

By WOOD COWAN

JESSE P. GUILFORD
PRESENT AMATEUR TITLE HOLDER AND ONE OF THE MOST TERRIFIC DRIVERS IN THE GAME

WOOD COWAN
HAS A HUGE PAIR OF SHOULDERS AND POWERFUL ARMS THAT'S WHY HE IS THE PRIZE AMATEUR DRIVER OF THE WORLD
"I'M ALL HIS REPUTATION AS DRIVER IT WAS HIS PUTTING THAT WON HIM THE TITLE LAST YEAR."
"PLINK"

Jesse Guilford, who defends his national amateur title this week, first came into the spotlight of sport back in 1914, when he poked ten shots over 300 yards down the fairway. This was something never before seen this side of the Atlantic in amateur title plays.

He brought his club back to his left heel and took a full old-fashioned swing—and with his broad shoulders, powerful arms and wrists, he puts as much steam behind his swings as any golfer in the game. This has won him the nickname of the "Human Siege Gun."

Guilford, when at his top form, is capable of some very fine golf for he is an excellent putter—in fact, one of the best, and it was his steady long putting that won him the amateur title last summer at St. Louis. Possessed of a sort of immobility, placid temperament, Jess seems to be devoid of nerves. Fact is, he has a hard time keeping keyed up when in tournament play.

When a lad 15, Guilford was champion of New Hampshire, his native state, and has also held the Massachusetts title and open.

Rules Will Prevent Dempsey-Wills Bout

NEW YORK, Sept. 6.—According to a report made public today, William Muldoon, chairman of the New York State Athletic commission, had laid down such arbitrary rules for the conduct of the proposed Dempsey-Wills bout, as to virtually bar the enterprise from this state.

Muldoon is quoted as stating that the promoter of the bout must guarantee the following: That 40,000 seats will be placed on sale at $2 each, that arrangements must be made to seat 100,000 persons comfortably, that no seat shall cost more than $15 and that the sum of $250,000 must be posted as security.

With Dempsey demanding huge sums for his end of the purse and Wills also to be taken care of, no promoter could hope to make the venture pay, under the above terms.

IF KIDNEYS ACT BAD TAKE SALTS

Says Bachache often means you have been eating too much meat.

When you wake up with backache and dull misery in the kidney region it may mean you have been eating too much meat, says a well-known authority. An excess of meat may form uric acid, which overworks the kidneys in their effort to filter it from the blood and they become sort of paralyzed and loggy. When your kidneys get sluggish and clog you must relieve them, like you relieve your bowels, removing all the body's urinous waste, else you have backache, sick headache, dizzy spells, your stomach sour, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment, channels often get sore, water scalds and you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night.

Either consult a good, reliable physician at once or get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus often ending bladder weakness.

Hooray! Food Costs Decreasing, Report

WASHINGTON, Sept. 6.—Despite the rail strike and other industrial disorders, the cost of food is coming down, the labor department announced today.

For the period July 15 to August 15 the decline ranged from 5 per cent in Milwaukee and Springfield, Ill., to one per cent in Richmond, Portland, Maine, Los Angeles and Dallas, Texas.

One Killed, Another Dying In Ship Fire

PENSACOLA, Fla., Sept. 6.—One man has been killed and another is believed to be dying here today as a result of a fire on the American steamer Coltraps. The Coltraps, 3126 tons, is lying in the harbor and probably will be a total loss.

No man can know everything, but every man can know enough to mind his own business.

Tagging All Bases

With a dull, sickening thud the Browns tumbled into second place by losing two games to the Red Sox, made up of Yankee cast-offs, 4 to 3 and 6 to 5. Home runs by Pratt and Mitchell, ex-Yanks, won both games for Boston. Ruth got his twenty-ninth off Rip Collins.

The Pirates moved up to within four and a half games of the Sox, by beating the Cardinals 11 to 0. Morrison pitched great ball. Marvynville got five hits.

In a wild, uncouth encounter, the Browns went into first place again in the American league by outlasting the Indians, 10 to 9. Williams hit No. 34 homer, tying Hornsby in the lone run derby. Sisler completed his thirty-fifth game in which he has hit safely.

While sundry and various members of the Giants' pitching staff were hung out to dry, the Braves knocked the champions off in a double header, 6 to 0 and 4 to 2.

Bob La Follette Is Two to One Winner

MADISON, Wis., Sept. 6.—"Fighting Bob" La Follette seeking re-nomination as Wisconsin senator, has swept Wisconsin by practically a 2 to 1 vote, returns from nearly one-half of the state indicated today.

His majority over William A. Ganfield will pass the 150,000 mark when all districts have been heard from, it was stated. Governor John J. Blaine proved a fit running mate for Senator La Follette for his plurality over William J. Morgan will top the 100,000 mark, figures early today indicated.

Political Battle Is Raging In Mississippi

JACKSON, Miss., Sept. 6.—Although early returns gave Hubert Stephens a lead over former United States Senator James K. Vardaman in their senatorial runoff primary, adherents of the former senator early today refused to accept the figures as indicative of the final result.

Vardaman's strength has always been in the country precincts, many of which had not been heard from at an early hour. Estimates at that time gave Stephens a lead of about 8000.

National Singles to Start Next Friday

NEW YORK, Sept. 6.—Both the American and Australian Davis cup teams which met in the challenge round ending yesterday will leave some time today for Philadelphia to prepare themselves for the national championship in singles. This begins Friday on the courts of the German-town Cricket club.

The Short Crucible

By Davis J. Walsh
International News Service Sports Editor

NEW YORK, Sept. 6.—The respective pennant chances of the New York Yanks and the St. Louis Browns, from this date may be summed up in the following manner, to wit:
The Browns must beat one ball club, the Yanks, two out of three games, starting September 16 and ending September 18. The Yanks must beat everything west of the Alleghenies.
To win a pennant on the road in an ordinary year is generally regarded as a harrowing undertaking. This is no ordinary year. The west plus the Yanks represents the American league. The Yanks, to all appearances, will have to go it alone after they get through with the Red Sox and the Athletics this week.
Their final appearance in the east until the last four days of the season will be made in Philadelphia September 11. Then they go into the west, which just now bears a singular resemblance of a lead pipe—no soft spots.
The first three games are with the White Sox. After the Yanks get through with the Sox or the Sox get through with the Yanks, the athletes repair to St. Louis. The fact of the matter is that if the Browns win three straight ball games in that series, the Yanks can proceed through the remainder of the schedule with an easy conscience. They then will have nothing on their minds save their caps, and the matter of collecting second place money.
On the other hand, the Browns must prove their case by taking at least two out of three. The loss of the series, in toto would mean the loss of the pennant, as would probably follow with the Yanks.

One would think the fate of the nations rested on the final decision as to whether or not steel shafted golf clubs are permissible. As a matter of fact, it is likely the little difference in what was the powers that be rule on the matter. If the players like the club they are going to use it. Of course, it can be ruled out of championships, but, in the final analysis, it is the man behind the club that counts.

Makers of clubs will tell you that it is getting to be a more and more difficult matter to get the perfect wood required to make the shafts of clubs, and if the metal proves a good substitute, which many claim it to be, it does not seem necessary to make a pull over it. A steel shaft will not prevent a slice or a pull any more than will the wooden one, which takes us back again to that final analysis of the player behind the club.

The advocates of the steel shaft have a good talking argument when they say that these sticks hold their shape better and more permanently, and the life of the club is lengthened. The principal argument of those favoring the wood shaft is that it does not drive the ball so far. Unless this is true, and with the increasing cost of real estate all over the country, it is more than likely that golf courses will have to be depulped in rather than lengthened. As far as this is concerned, it

Next Saturday the amateur track and field championships of the United States will be decided at Newark, N. J. The greatest athletes of the country are to compete and with the exception of Charles W. Paddock, the present holder of the 220 yard dash, every sprinter of national prominence will be on hand.

The records of the hundred and two-hundred yards national sprint championships, the annual races, show an interesting phase on analysis. Naturally one would expect that in the sprinting event the winner would expect speed superior to that in an every day race and yet the records show that only on very rare occasions have the winners of either of the two dashes done even time or better.

In the hundred yards Charlie Paddock won it last year in nine and three-fifths seconds and he is the first sprinter on record to be credited with world record time in the 220-yard sprinter has ever equalled the world record in this actual championship race. Until the day that Paddock, in a meet at Berkeley, Calif., last year ran the 220-yard dash in twenty-one and four-fifths seconds, the record had been twenty-one and one-fifth seconds. In the forty-six years that the 220-yard dash has been a standard event in competition, no athlete has ever been credited with equaling the then world mark of twenty-one and one-fifth, except in 1915 when R. F. Morse of Brooklyn won the furlong title at the Panama-Pacific Exposition in twenty-one and one-fifth seconds, but he had a gale of wind at his back and the record was not allowed. The present "championship" record of the furlong is twenty-one and two-fifths, held jointly by Barney Wetters, made in 1897, and Charlie Paddock, made in 1920.

In forty-six years of competition in the 100-yard championship it is interesting to note that only on eighteen occasions has the winner done even time" of ten seconds or better. The records show that the hundred yards has been run in ten seconds just twelve times, in nine and four-fifths seconds five times, one of

JURY WILL SAY IF TEACHERS MAY GO TO DANCES

Suited School Ma'am Files Suit Because She Was Dismissed

EMINENCE, Kan., Sept. 6.—Boy, page Priscilla Prim!
 "For there is a place in the world for the old-fashioned girl." The place is Eminence, Kan.

Or, so, at least, claims Miss Clara White, mistress of the "little red school house" at the end of St. Simpkins' farm, on the flat wheatland of this one-time prominent Kansas community.

Miss White has filed suit against Miss Lizzie Wooster, state superintendent of schools, in which she sounds the call for "old-fashioned girls."

For Miss White has been dismissed from her teachership in any school in Kansas because she dances.

Her suit, upon which a judge and jury of Kansas farmers must pass, climaxes one of the most drastic school rulings ever issued in a western state.

Miss Wooster, temperance advocate, anti-cigarette campaigner, enemy of the bobbed hair and the abbreviated skirt, has made a law of her own by which Kansas teachers must abide, Miss White alleges.

Tobacco Is Barred
 First. Teachers in Kansas—men or women—cannot use tobacco in any form—pipe, cigar, cigaret or a "chaw."
 Third. Teachers must not dance.

Third. Teachers must not permit dancing in Kansas schools.

Fourth. Low necks and short skirts are not to be tolerated, and bobbed hair is frowned upon.

"And what right as any woman to dictate such laws to those who have passed normal school courses?" Miss White demands.

It is this question the Kansas jury must answer.

In her suit Miss White alleges that a dance was given by the country folk about the little town of Eminence in her school house. She attended.

"It was a lovely affair, and a pleasant time was had by all," Miss White admits. "There was a polka and a two-step, and everybody joined in the Virginia Reel."

Ma, Paw, and Sis all were there. The town boys sipped up for the don'ts, Miss White says and the whole community joins her in saying it was a "gosh darned success."

Dancing Not Permitted
 "But teachers in the Kansas schools cannot dance," Miss Wooster has already ruled. "Furthermore," the school superintendent wrote her employee, "you have broken the school law of Kansas twice over—you allowed the school house to be desecrated by a shameful, sinful dance."

To these charges Miss Emma Wilson, county superintendent of schools, added another—that Miss White permitted many of her pupils to "cut capers" on the floor.

"Swing your partner," Miss White has ruled. She requires every teacher to take oath that he, or she, will not use "the word" in any form.

Eminence Suit in Print
 Miss White's suit has brought the little town of Eminence back on the map of the daily press.

Eminence was the county seat of Geary county, which was abolished many years ago and made a part of Finney county. In the days of the life of Eminence as a city it was on page one of half the papers of the country almost daily.

It was either under arms protecting its county seat against the attacks of rival towns, or under arms and marching orders to bring the county seat back from some other town which had taken it away over night.

The state house at Topeka has kept busy for years answering the call for troops either for or against Eminence.

It may now develop that Eminence again will become the seat of trouble over the vital question of whether a "school marm" may dance, or paint her face, or bob her hair—or, perhaps, smoke an occasional cigaret and still hold her certificate to teach.

Enthusiastic Singer Gets Fine for Effort

CINCINNATI, Ohio—There is a time-honored axiom to the effect that perseverance is always rewarded, but Judge Yeatman recently meted out the sort of reward to a singer who wouldn't turn off the melody that many folks have hoped to deal the neighbors' phonograph or steam piano. Two policemen testified that Roy Bailey took up a position opposite his cafe in the small hours of the morning and stuck so obstinately to his intention of singing every verse of the "Prohibition Blues" that the "wagon" carried him away still warbling. The judge fined him $10 and costs.

OFFSETS RACE SUICIDE

PARIS—Despite constant editorials bawling French race suicide, the official census total, published in the Journal Officiel, shows that the addition of Alsace and Lorraine has made up for the deficit of births. The 1922 population is 39,209,666.

SOUTHERN EDITORS GIVE GREETINGS TO RICHARDSON

Republican Candidate for Governor Receives Many Pledges of Support

Friend William Richardson last night was the guest of 200 editors of southern-California at a reception and dinner rendered the Republican nominee for governor in the banquet rooms of the Los Angeles City club.

Democratic publishers, former machine controlled editors and those independent newspaper men who carried Richardson to success were united in promising him the greatest majority ever given any governor in the November election.

Judge Harlan G. Palmer, editor of the Hollywood Daily Citizen, presided and stated that the remarkable thing about the campaign was that at no time was there any challenge as to Friend Richardson's character, either in public or private life.

Number of Speakers
 John E. King of Hemet, president of the Southern California Editorial Association, eulogized the honored guest, while George D. Squires, attorney for the California Press Association, over which Mr. Richardson presided for twenty-one years, told of campaign experiences.

Jack Campbell, news editor of the Los Angeles Herald, wanted to know how the country editors put over their candidate and upset the political dope; Kyle D. Palmer spoke for the Times, F. W. Kellogg of the Express, who opposed Richardson, stated that Richardson will be elected by an overwhelming majority.

A dozen country editors spoke, including J. L. Mathews of Covina, who handled Governor Stephens' publicity in the south, and he paid high tribute to the impersonal campaign conducted. He declared there would be no independent candidate to run against Richardson.

Gets 'Loving Cup'
 Crombie Allen, of Ontario, who is president of the Southern California Dailies Association, presented the governor-to-be with a loving cup—a milk bottle from the "cow county editors" which was filled with congratulatory notes.

In a brief talk to his fellow publishers, Friend Richardson told of the campaign he won, how he won it, and why he does not appear before the public on the stump. "I never met but two candidates for high office who could win votes by speaking," he said.

In referring to his past political experience as state printer and state treasurer, he said that when Governor Hiram Johnson asked him to take the job of printer there was but one string to it: "Make good and let the people know about it," was Johnson's only request.

Making No Bluff
 Friend Richardson has made his reputation for economy and he again promised last night to make the state administration less expensive, regardless of the legislature.

"In pledging economy I am not making any bluff," he said. "With my experience in the treasurer's office for more than seven years I know what to do."

And with the aid of the country newspapers he is going to do it after having successfully smashed the state machine. As Richardson says, "There is no more machine. It is going to be business if I am elected."

DANCE IS POSTPONED
 Announcement is made by members of the La Madrid cup that the benefit dance planned for September 15 has been postponed until October 13, when it will be held in the Chamber of Commerce hall. The dance is for the benefit of the California Hospital for Crippled Children, located in Los Angeles.

What a lover! What a picture! You'll thrill at his unpassioned love-making. Eight gorgeous, breathless reels you'll never forget.

Another place of interest is East Toothbrush, which rose into fame through the efficiency of its housewives, who were the first to adopt the modern method of sweeping up and down, instead of from side to side.

Travelers will also be interested in Orange Valley, commonly known as The Valley of Delight, a favorite winter resort with daily excursions to Fruit Juice Springs.

Going on one comes to Spinach Green and its neighboring villages, Best-Top Hill and Lettuce Woods. Then there are Hot-Soup Springs, headquarters of the vegetable-growing industry, and Baked Potato Hills, favorite residence district situated on Butter Creek.

Ball Team In Action
Dear to the hearts of all travelers is Play Meadows, where the passenger can witness the Healthland baseball team in action. The natives used a boiled onion for a ball and a very large carrot for a bat. (Pure Cow's Milk on sale at the grounds.)

And finally is Long Sleep Mountain, the highest peak in Healthland, towering from nine to ten hours above sea level. From this point the tourist can look out over Dreamland, which drifts "like a castle in mid-ocean."

In glancing over the daily train schedule, the prospective passengers will note that the time is as follows: Red Cheek Local, 7 a. m.; Healthland Flyer, 12 m.; Super Express, 6:15 p. m.; Shoot-Over Star Limited, 8 p. m.

There is also a notice to travelers stating that on and after today the following trains will be eliminated: Coffee Express, Tea Accommodation and Midnight Owl, and in their place the Cow's Milk Limited will be run daily in three sections.

As a final word to those contemplating the trip one reads, "Buy a Lettuce Leaf Insurance Policy" and "No cucumbers, fried potatoes, radishes or other explosives allowed in the baggage car."

In connection with the Healthland exhibit and sketch Mrs. Harris and Miss Marsh have planned and made a set of health posters that are both entertaining and instructive. The illustrations have been aptly chosen and artistically mounted on cards bearing appropriate rules and the sanitarian people are receiving many compliments on the entire exhibit.

Superintendent Molony is himself an active member of the American Legion and expects to participate in the sessions of the convention.

During a recent visit to Kansas City Molony investigated conditions prevailing in that city during last year's American Legion convention. He discovered, he states, that city and police officials have no criticism to make concerning the way in which the 150,000 visiting former service men conducted themselves. Kansas City, he learned, would welcome the opportunity of having the organization again choose Kansas City as their convention city.

With Legion men aiding in protecting life and property during the convention," says Molony, "I do not anticipate any trouble from the unusual number of crooks that probably will flock to New Orleans with an idea of preying upon the citizens of this city and upon visiting delegates. My buddies will uphold the law."

VALENTINO HERE IN NOTED STORY

Prominent Star, With Great Supporting Cast, Now on T. D. L. Theatre

Blasco Ibanez, famous Spanish author, and Rodolph Valentino, equally famous film star, are a splendid combination, and those who have seen "Blood and Sand," now being shown at the T. D. & L. theatre have seen author and actor at their best.

Valentino's first interpretation of Ibanez was in the famous war drama, "The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse" and its Paramount success is being approached by "Blood and Sand."

In "Blood and Sand" Valentino has a fine supporting cast, including Lila Lee and Nita Naldi (Winnifred Hudnut). The Spanish scenes have been most artistically and convincingly worked out by Fred Niblo, the director, and the film will be said to be one of the biggest of the year.

Ball Ring Scenes
It is a typical Spanish picture featuring the Castilian people and their various characteristics. Valentino portrays a young toreador and many of the scenes take place in the bull ring. Lila Lee appears as a beautiful young senora, while Nita Naldi plays the vampire role with much finesse.

Ralph Allan, manager of the T. D. & L., says of the film, "In every respect it is one of the new season's, just dawning, stellar cinema attractions, and to fail to see it is to lose much in entertainment, drama and romance. Remember only two more days in Glendale today. Plan to come early."

Buenos Aires has more than 500 drug stores and more than 600 perfume shops and beauty parlors.

Lima, Peru, has ordered the establishment of municipal markets.

RESCUE WORK IN MINE IS HALTED

Muck and Broken Timbers Meet Crews After They Pierce Stone Walls

JACKSON, Cal., Sept. 6.—Hope of rescuing alive the forty-seven fire-trapped miners in the depths of the Argonaut gold mine here today was materially lessened when rescue crews reported that after piercing one of the stone walls in the Kennedy 3600-foot level, they found the drift toward the Argonaut blocked with muck and broken timbers.

It is estimated the rescue work will be delayed for two or three days by this unexpected obstruction before the rescuers can reach the last remaining seventy-foot wall separating the Argonaut from the Kennedy. The obstructed tunnel through which it is planned to reach the last remaining barrier is 353 feet long. Part of it can be negotiated, but it is necessary to move the greater part of the debris in order to lay water pipes and tubes for the feeding of compressed air to the powerful drills which will be used to cut through the quartz wall.

Have Air and Water
Officials state that the entrapped miners have sufficient air and water, but now the question of food to sustain life, if life still exists, is causing them anxiety.

Some progress was reported by the shift boss of the crew working toward the Argonaut from the 2900-foot level of the Kennedy. The tunnel which is being cleared from this point is 100 feet long, but at the end, separating the two mines, is a 141-foot quartz wall. To pierce this wall, experts estimate, would require four days and nights of constant drilling. Small openings made by a diamond drill through this substance will be used to force air, water and food to the stricken miners, if it is found they are still alive.

Arbuckle Abandons World Tour Planned

TOKYO, Sept. 6.—Roscoe "Fatty" Arbuckle, who entered a hospital here upon his arrival from the United States for the treatment of an infected finger, today announced his intention of returning home, and abandoning his proposed world tour.

BEAUTIFUL GIRL SICKLY HEROINE

It Happens In Movies, of Course, and Story Is "The Dust Flower"

If you were a beautiful young girl, the picture of health and vitality and someone came up to you and said: "Tomorrow you must be sick. You must look as if you had one foot in the grave!" What would you do?

That same question confronted Helene Chadwick the other day. This popular Goldwyn girl was cast for the sickly young heroine in Basil King's new drama, "The Dust Flower," coming to the Glendale theatre for three days.

The fair Helene followed the usual routine. She made up her face with hollows in her cheeks and under her eyes, but when photographed she looked healthier than ever. Then the resourceful Miss Chadwick did the very simplest of things. She removed all traces of studio makeup from her features. Her naturally rosy cheeks photographed the opposite way. She sure looks sick, you will agree when you see the picture.

Jimmy Aubrey in "The Applicant," Current News, novelties and pictures of U. S. battleships on the high seas complete the big bill.
